Show Report for Wirehaired Dachshund Club Championship
Show Sunday 27th March 2022

I would like to thank the committee and secretary for their invitation to judge at this well run and friendly Show,
Best in show was Phillips, Ch Royal Peppers Vice Versa ,
Beautiful head and expression good length of neck in to well placed shoulders, nice length of ribbing and a very firm top line nicely rounded hindquarters, held a perfect outline on the move Beautiful presented and well handled. Res Best in Show was the Miniature Sexton, s Molloney Noodle Not A Doodle, good head and length of neck nice shoulders with good bone and feet, top line good and nice angulation

Best puppy in show was Phillips, Tendrow Makes The Right Turn liked her and head and expression lovely bone and feet, good outline on the move and I see she is sired by the best in show winner, a champion in the making. Res Best puppy was the Miniature Crossman and Kennedy, Foxearth Fly By Night, nice head and neck good shoulders top line needs to settle a little on the move, but a very happy lad looks nice staked.

Best Veteran in show. Hewlett and Prowting, Boloria Arabella Nice head and neck good shoulders and top line, moved well with a good outline, very well handled by her young handler. res best Veteran was the Miniature, Jones, Ch Bimini Starstruck lovely size with good head and neck, shoulder well placed good top line and nice outline two very nice vetrans
